

AUTHOR'S STATEMENT

- 1) I declare that the submitted article titled .....
- .....
- was compiled in accordance with applicable academic ethics, i.e.:
- the contribution of individual authors to the publication is:
    1. % .....
    2. % .....
    3. % .....
  - individual authors performed the following activities in the preparation of the article (choose from the list or add your own: concept, methodology, verification, formal analysis, conducting the research process, data collection, sharing materials, creating analytical tools, material development process)
    1. ....
    2. ....
    3. ....
  - the submitted article is the original version, i.e. it has not previously been published in another publishing house;
  - illustrations included in the article are made by the author; otherwise, the author undertakes to indicate the sources of the illustration
- 2) The author / authors of the submitted article have the following individual ORCID* numbers.
  1. ....
  2. ....
  3. ....
- 3) I have read the editorial requirements and conditions for submitting articles to the editorial office of Technical Transactions; I accept the layout adopted by the editorial team; I undertake not to make significant changes in the author's corrections that may affect the layout of the text (in the pdf format received for approval before printing) – this does not apply to substantive errors and corrections attributable to the fault of PK Publishing House.
- 4) I consent to the recording and reproduction of the article using printing techniques, electronic and digital storage media, digitalisation, storage in the computer's memory and sharing via computer networks, including the Internet (website of Technical Transactions, Repository of PK, as well as the Academic Journal Portal of the Jagiellonian University – ejournals).
- 5) I have read the contents of the CC BY-SA 4.0 licence and consent to the publication of the article in accordance with its terms and conditions.

.....
Date

.....
Signature