

CONTENTS

PART I: Galicia and Its Aftermath

- Mirosław Łapot, Development of the Education of Galician Jews at the Turn of the 19th and 20th Centuries as Exemplified by the City of Lviv.....
- Katarzyna Thomas, Various Aspects of the Charitable Activity of Jews in Drohobych in the Early 20th Century
- Wacław Wierzbieniec, The Consequences of the Lviv Pogrom on November 22–23, 1918, in Light of the Findings and Actions of the Jewish Rescue Committee.....
- Illia Chedoluma, Images and Representations of the Rudnytskyi Family: The Case of Ukrainians in Galicia Between the Wars.....
- Roman Melnyk, The Concept of “Galicia” in the Discourse of Chwila Newspaper (1919–1939)
- Nadia Skokova, The East Galician Zionist Federation and the Polish Governments of 1922–1926
- Tony Kahane and Andrew Zalewski, Between Institutional Antisemitism and Authoritarianism in the Territory of the Former Galicia, 1935–1939: Discussion of the Problem.....
- Jonathan Webber, Exhibiting Galicia: Problems of Interpretation and Other Reflections on the Permanent Exhibition at the Galicia Jewish Museum in Kraków

PART II: Studies in Polish Jewry

- Przemysław Zarubin, Resources Concerning the History of Polish Jews in Castle Court Records of the 17th and 18th Centuries in the Central State Historical Archives in Kyiv and Lviv.....
- Magdalena Ruta, The Gulag of Poets: The Experience of Exile, Forced Labour Camps, and Wandering in the USSR in the Works of Polish-Yiddish Writers (1939–1949)
- Jarosław Dulewicz and Joanna Tokarska-Bakir, “An Unfinished Story”: Genealogy of the Kielce Pogrom Victims (Selected Problems and New Research Possibilities).....
- José Luis Arráez, Nathalie Skowronek « la recherche de Max » : Construction littéraire et autometatextualite dans les ouvrages de la 3^e generation de la Shoah

REVIEW

Jacek Chrobaczyński, Pogrom or Collective Violence Against Jews from a Diversified, Interdisciplinary Research Perspective (Some Initial Notes)