

Table of Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Introduction: Bridgebuilding in Contemporary Foreign Policy Analysis .....  | 7   |
| Liv Frank, F. Asli Ergul Jorgensen, Knud Erik Jørgensen, Laura Landorff,If Foreign Policy Paradigms Were on the Research Agenda .....   | 13  |
| Stefano Guzzini, “ Vision of Itself ” in Foreign Policy Analysis: From the Roleof Ideas to Identity and Recognition .....   | 33  |
| Stephen G. Walker, Binary Role Theory and Levels of Role Changein World Politics: When Do Leaders Make a Difference? .....   | 59  |
| Marijke Breuning, Investigating Leaders: Integrating the Study of Individualsin Foreign Policy Analysis and International Relations .....  | 81  |
| Eva Michaels, Renewing Realist Constructivism: Does It Have Potentialas a Theory of Foreign Policy? .....  | 101 |
| Magdalena Kozub-Karkut, Towards a Theoretical Synthesis: SupplementingTwo-Level Games with Role Theory .....   | 123 |
| Mateusz Z. Filary-Szczepanik, Power and Narcists – Ideal Types of StatesBased on Their Sources of National Power, Extraction Capabilityand Foreign Policy Behaviour .....                                       | 147 |
| Bariş Kesgin, Dueling Personalities and Leadership Styles: Gül, Erdoğan,and the Parliament in Turkey’s Policymaking during the 2003 Iraq War ...   | 169 |
| Emilian Kavalski, India’s Indo-Pacific Gambit: An Awkward Power Strivingfor Status .....   | 193 |
| Anna Umińska-Woroniecka, We Were Taken on the Ride. Leadership TraitsAnalysis in the Circumstances of International Crisis – the Decisionof Aleksander Kwaśniewski in the Context of Intervention in Iraq ..... | 215 |
| Tomasz Pawłuszko, The Foreign Policy of Poland and the Problemof Political Rationale .....   | 237 |
| Tomasz Pugacewicz, Foreign Policy Analysis in Post-Cold War Poland: History,Teaching, Institutions, Westernization, and Theoretical Approaches .....   | 257 |