

CONTENTS

John G. Peters, “A Voice Crying in the Wilderness” : Joseph Conrad’s Lasting Legacy .....	7
Stefan Zabierowski, “He was one of us” – Joseph Conrad as a Home Army Author .....	17
Cedric Watts, A Pattern of Flaws: Further Reflections on Cambridge University Press’s Edition of the Literary Works of Joseph Conrad .....	31
Grażyna Maria Teresa Branny, How Much Conrad in Conrad Criticism?: Conrad’s Artistry, Ideological Mediatization and Identity: A Commemorative Address on the 160th Anniversary of the Writer’s Birth .....	41
Gerard Kilroy, The Secret Agent: A Far from Simple Tale .....	55
Agnieszka Adamowicz-Pośpiech, Joseph Conrad’s “The Duel” and Eustachy Rylski’s Warunek, or the Text and Its Spectre .....	65
Gianluca Cinelli, Autobiography, Fiction and the Overcoming of Romance. The Parable of the Outsider in Joseph Conrad’s The Shadow-Line .....	83
Karol Samsel, The Echoes of Polish Romanticism in The Nigger of the “Narcissus” .....	101
Joanna Skolik, Joseph Conrad-Korzeniowski, an English Writer with a Polish Soul: Joseph Conrad’s Polish Heritage .....	119
Agnieszka Adamowicz-Pośpiech, Joseph Conrad: A Citizen of a Global World (Review of Maya Jasanoff, The Dawn Watch: Joseph Conrad in a Global World ).....	129
Notes on Contributors .....	135